

The Stories Jesus Told: The good shepherd

By Lisa Debney

Actions: None. Encourage people to listen in reflective silence.

I am your shepherd, you are my sheep;
when life gets hard, when life gets steep,
through the dark times, through the deep,
I will walk beside you.

I am your shepherd, I know your names.
When things seem different, things seem strange,
when it seems like nothing will be the same,
I will walk beside you.

I am your shepherd, I know you so well,
the things you touch and see and smell.
I know the story that you tell as I walk beside you.

I am your shepherd, I know each one,
So do not fear what is to come.
The night-time brings the morning sun;
the journey ends as it's begun,
and I am there beside you.
